
Business Guard

Tata AIG's core strength is product innovation. Business Guard is a packaged product range developed after detailed analyses of the insurance needs of various market segments.

Unlike other packaged policies available in the market, Business Guard policies are flexible enough to be adapted to specific business situations. This flexibility allows clients to build in a host of coverages under one umbrella, creating a comprehensive insurance solution.

The Business Guard series of packaged products addresses the needs of trading, services, and manufacturing segments.

- 1. Shakti (for large traders)
- 2. Office (for office insurance needs)
- 3. Commercial (for manufacturing and other services)
